item without the statement of the author of the news item, therefore, the news item is hereby ignored by this Forum and also considering that conveners were appointed only till the disposal of the complaint, so they also cannot participate in the selection of this team and moreover, when no affiliation has been granted to the District Cricket Association, Mohali so far, they have no right to organize any such selection in the premises of the PCA or to use the name of PCA in any manner for selection of U-16 team.
